

PALÁCIO TANGARÁ
SÃO PAULO

Destination São Paulo

Oetker Collection introduces in Sao Paulo, the cultural, gastronomic and fashion capital of Brazil, European hospitality combined with Brazilian « Art de vivre ».

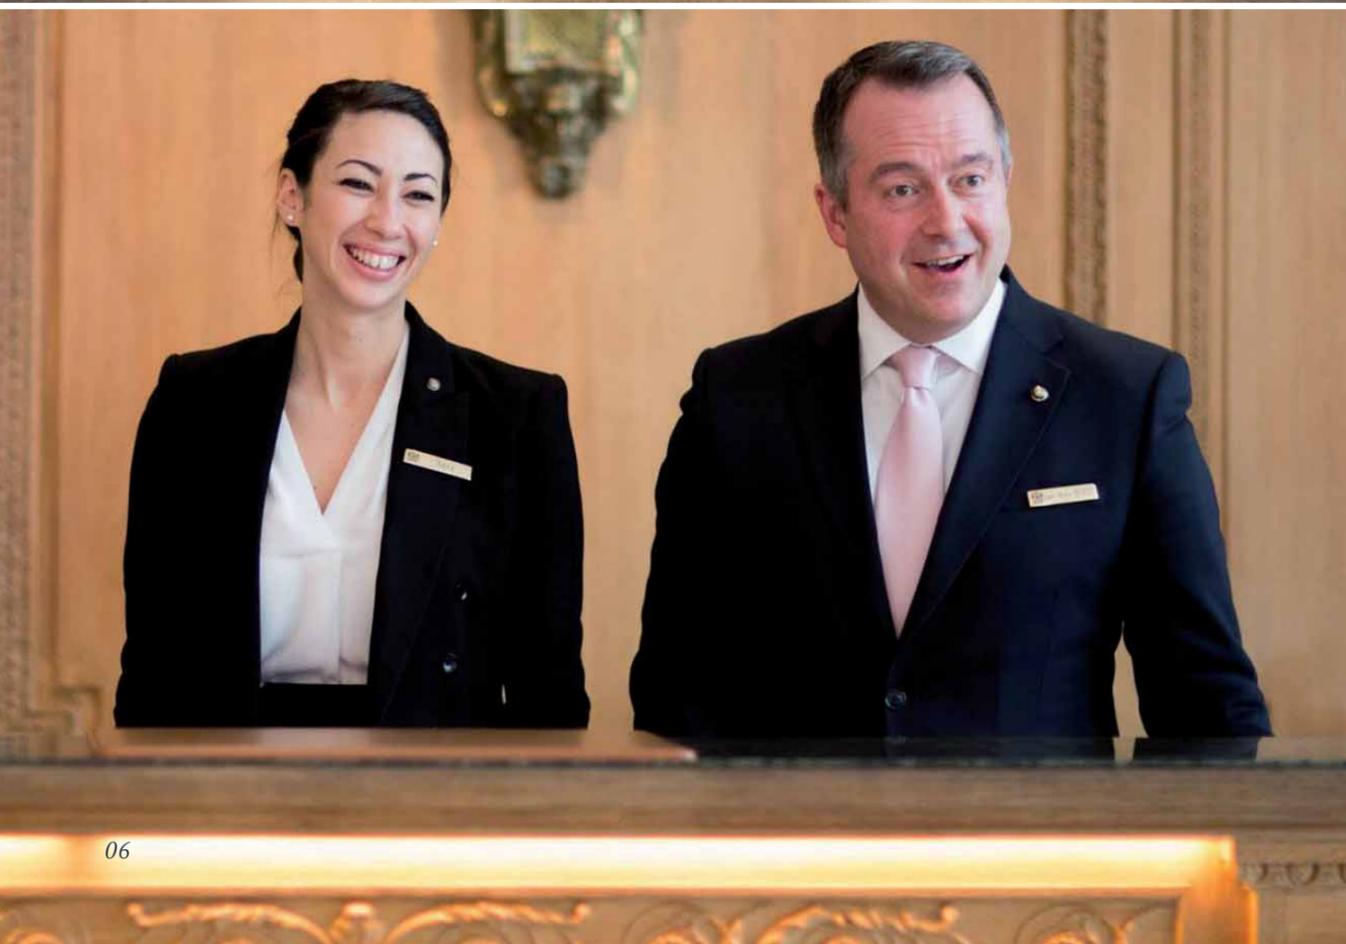

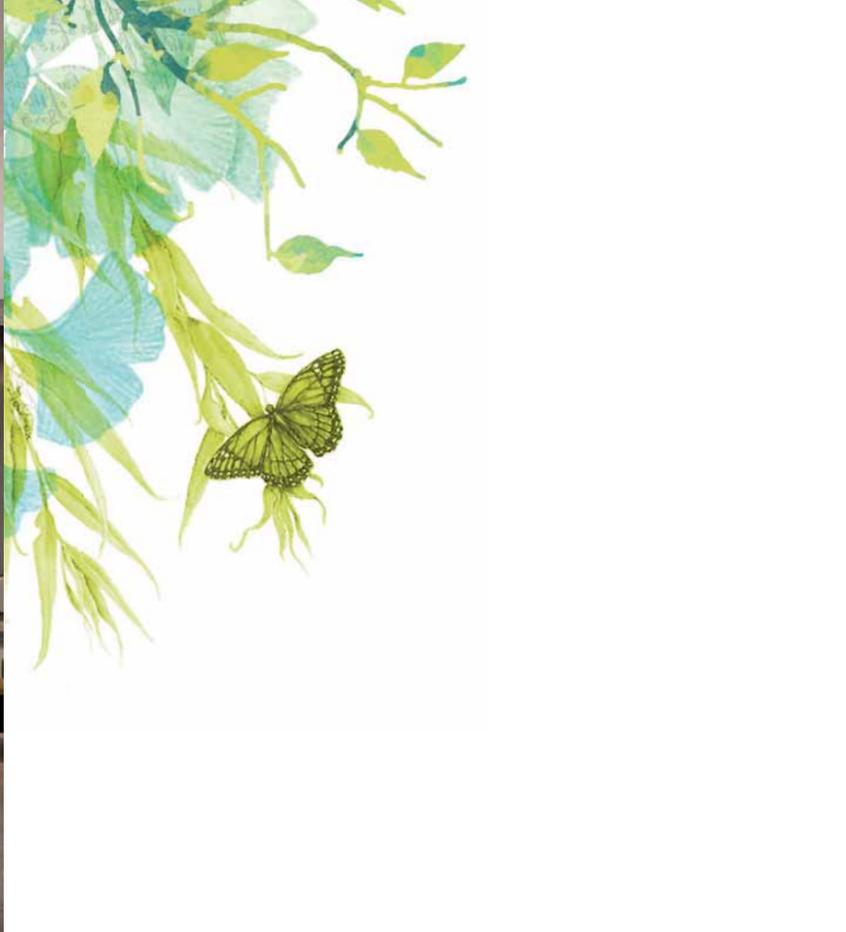

Palácio Tangará

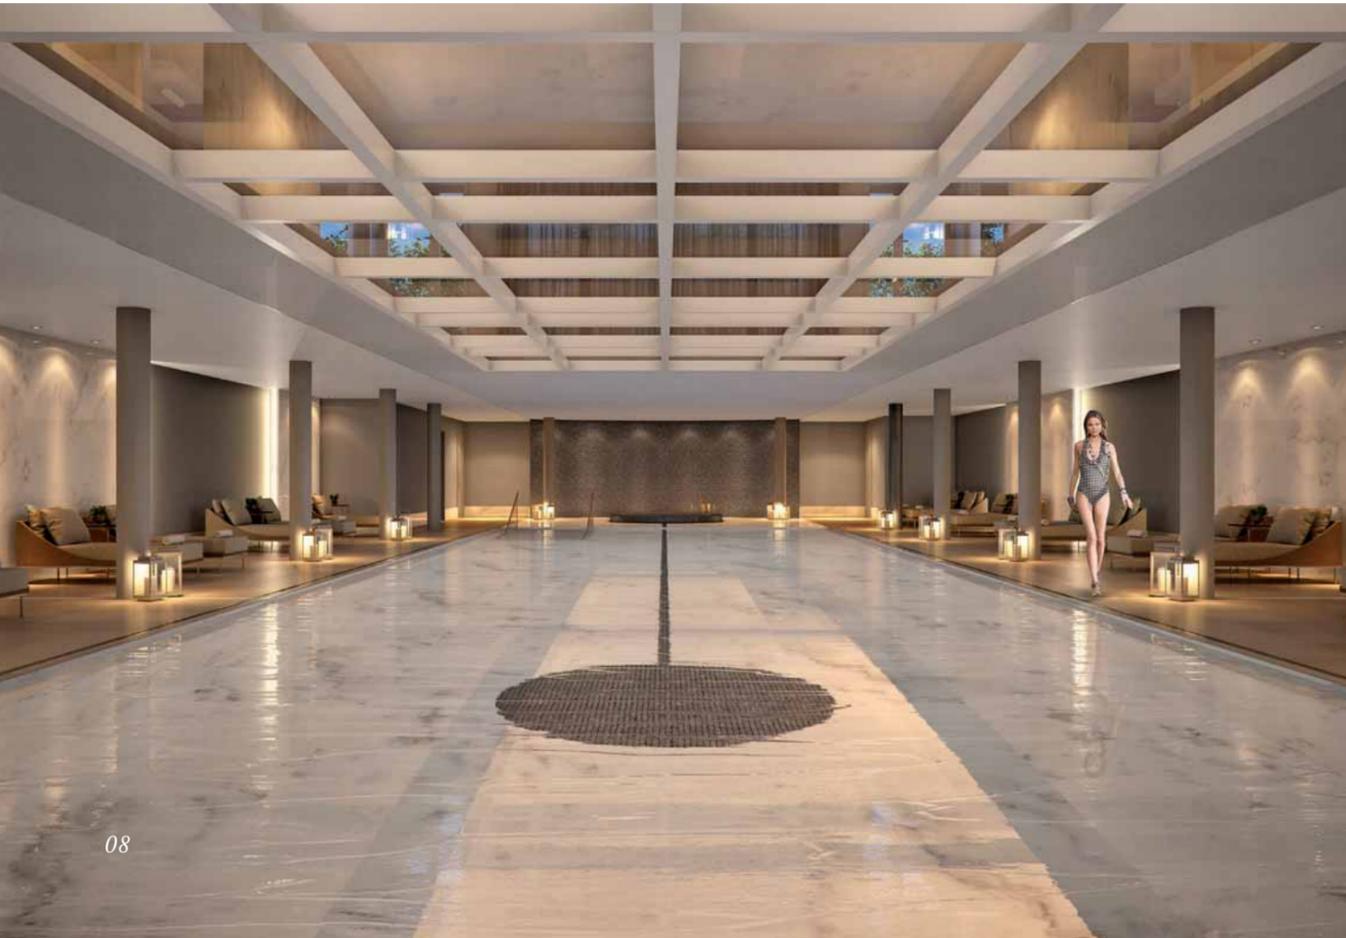

Encircled by a lush tropical park, designed by world renowned landscape architect, Roberto Burle Marx, Palácio Tangara offers an unparalleled and exceptional location in the desirable Morumbi neighbourhood, close to the upcoming business district and just minutes away from some of the city's most notable attractions.

Palacio Tangara welcomes guests in a refined contemporary décor, bathed in natural daylight throughout its spacious rooms and suites, variety of culinary venues imagined by Chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten as well as the state of the art recreational and well-being facilities.

A peaceful retreat in a vibrant city.

The Burle Marx Park is home to a wide variety of rare tropical birds, butterflies and flora. Guests will appreciate the natural environment and tranquil surroundings of the hotel that can be enjoyed from their private terrace, whilst fine dining or simply lounging by the pool. The perfect balance between the excitement of a restless city and a peaceful retreat.

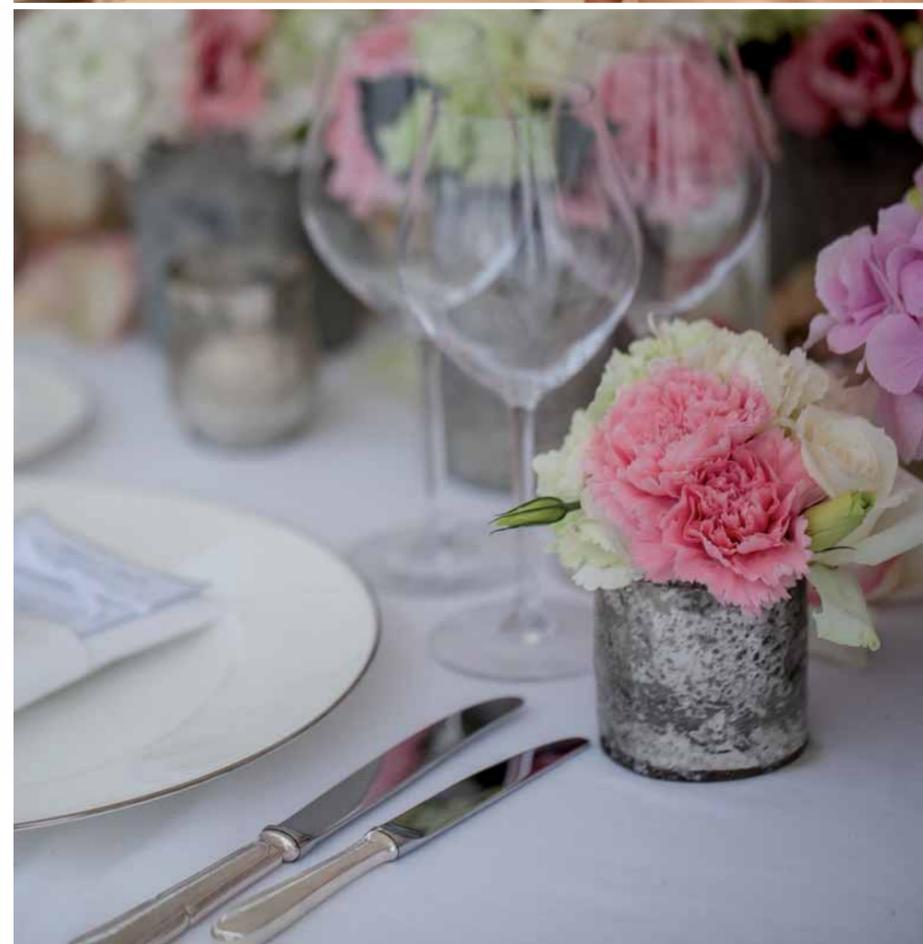

CHEF JEAN-GEORGES
VONGERICHTEN

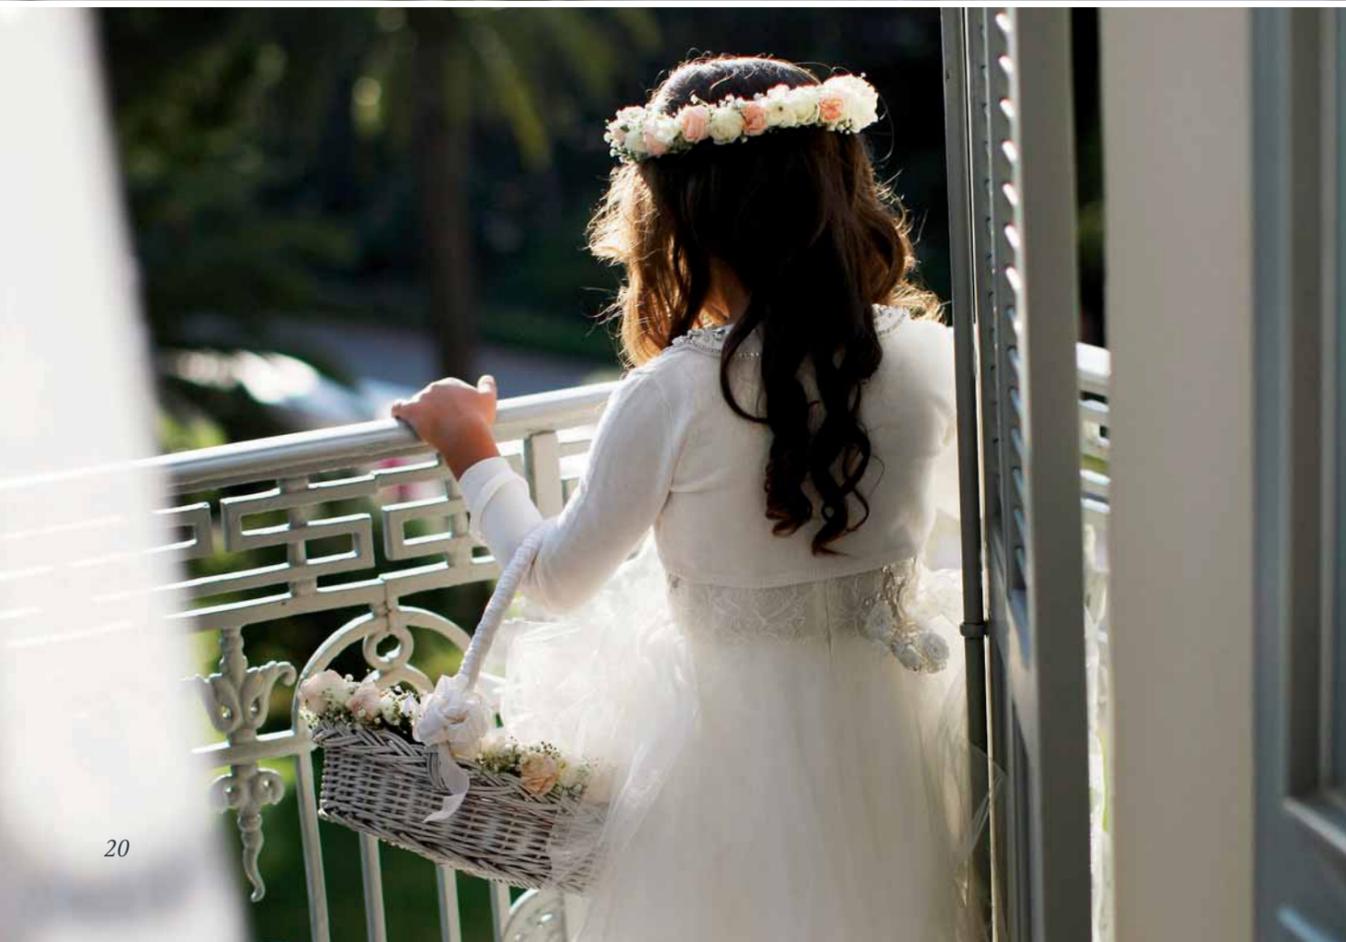

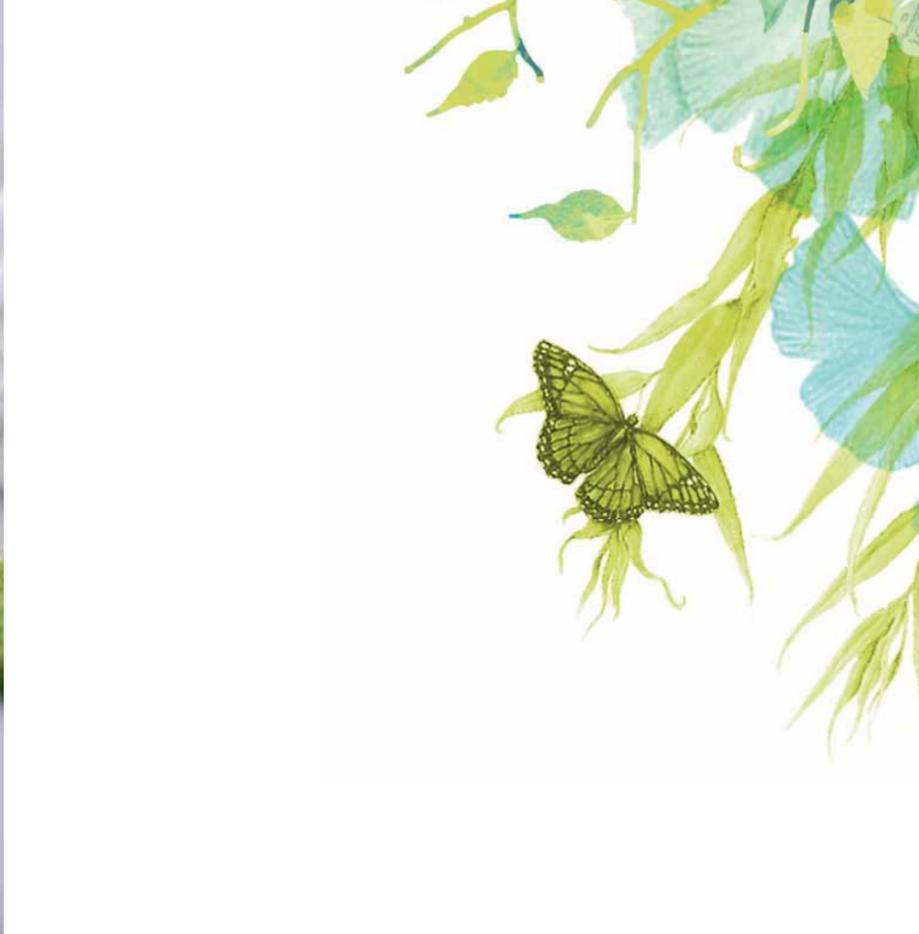

It was during his time spent working and travelling throughout Asia that Jean-Georges, French born Chef, developed his love for exotic and aromatic flavours. His versatile signature cuisine, enjoyed by epicureans from New York to Hong Kong or St.Barths, abandons the traditional use of meat stocks and creams and instead features the intense flavours and textures from vegetable juices, fruit essences, light broths, and herbal vinaigrettes. Jean-Georges' culinary vision has redefined and revolutionized the way we eat.

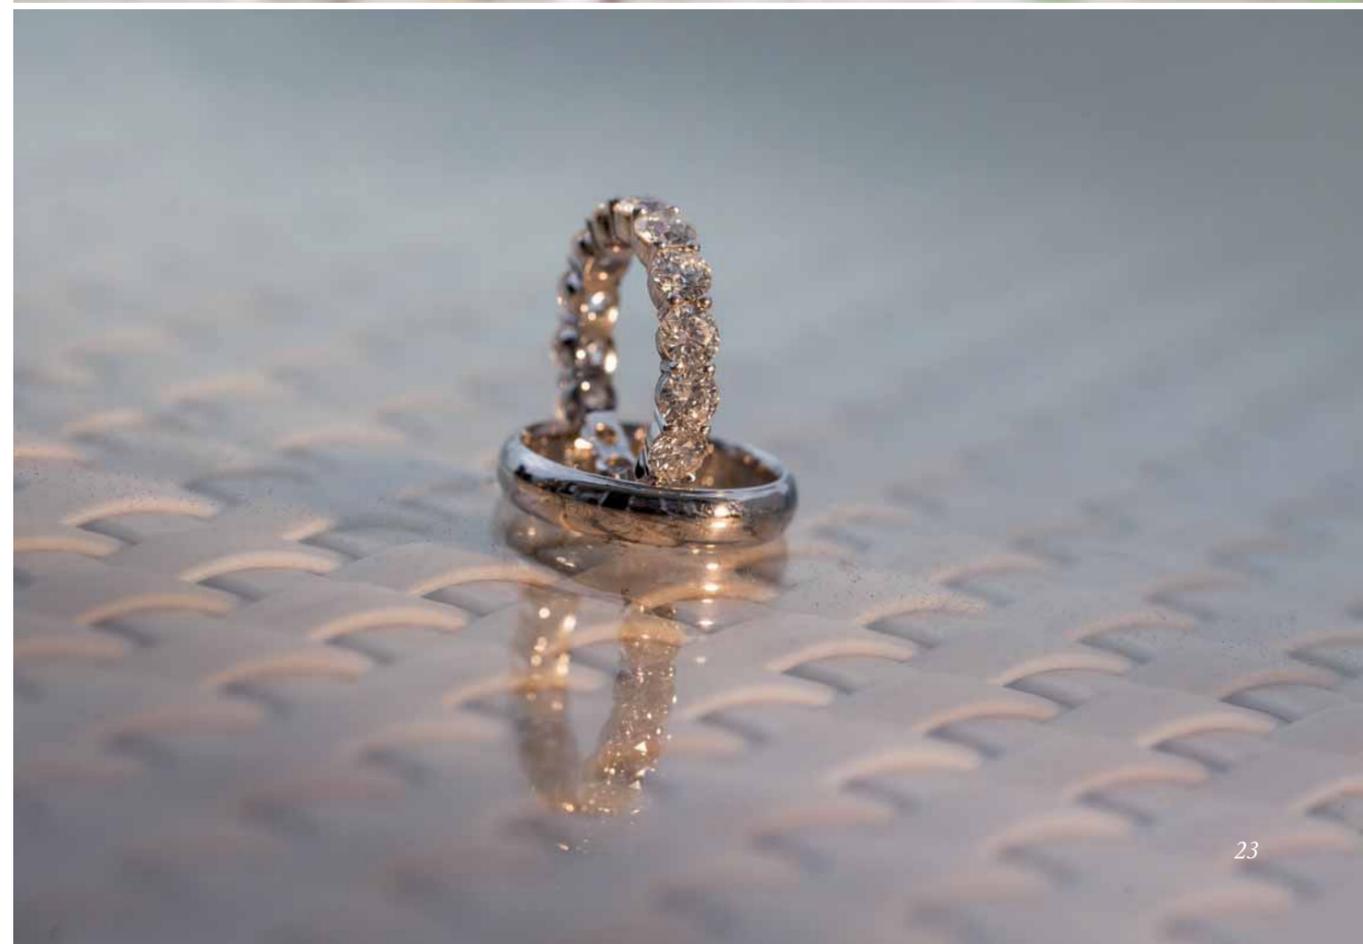

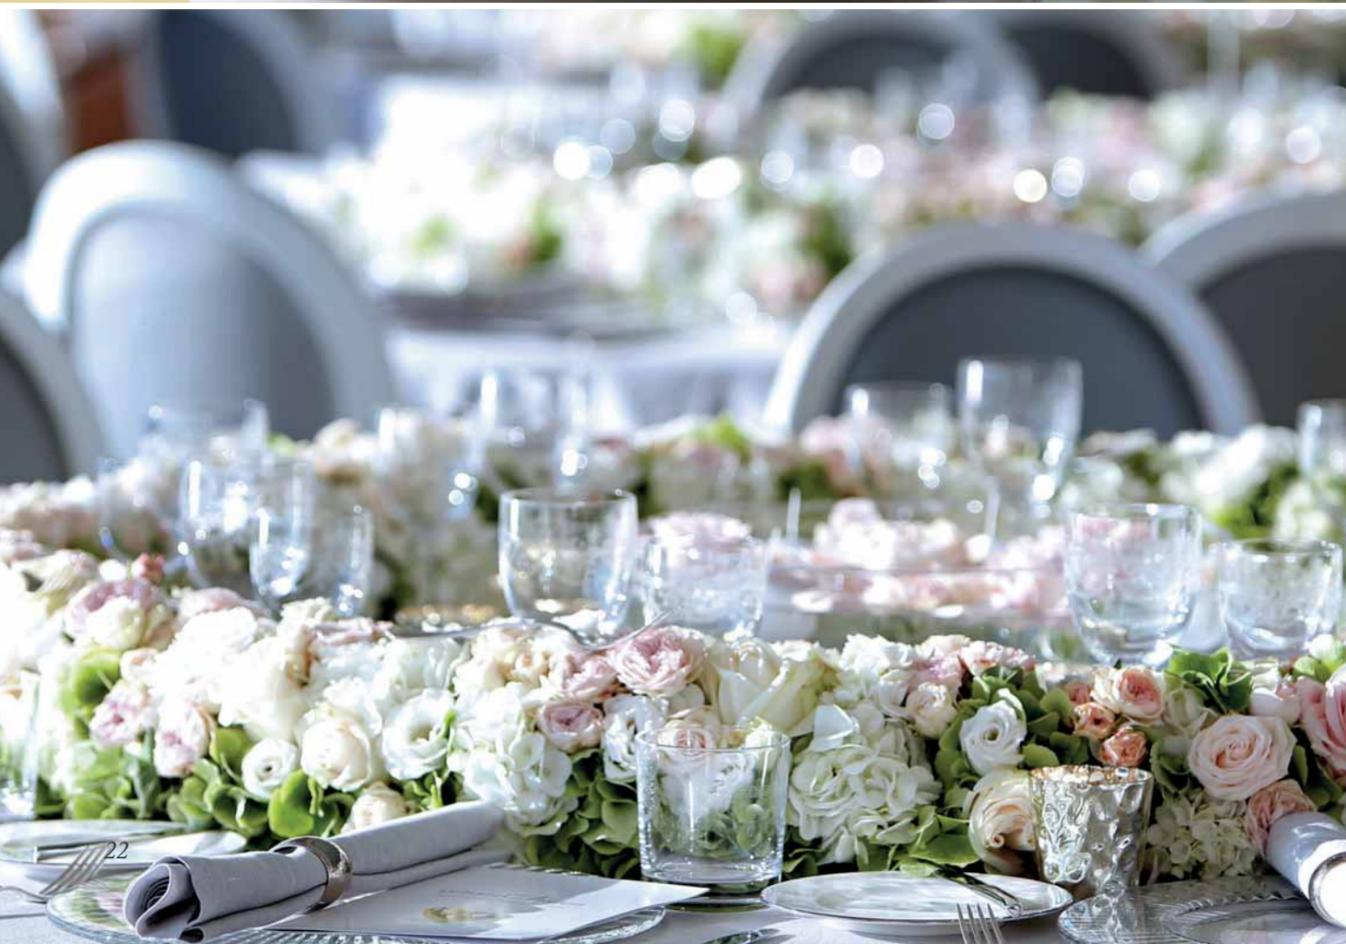

Palacio Tangara is Jean-George's first and only address to date in South America.

An unparalleled and magical setting for your most prestigious events, weddings, fashion shows and art exhibitions. Palacio Tangara offers one of a kind event spaces, bathed in natural daylight overlooking the lush tropical park. 9 state of the art rooms, catering for the smallest business meeting to the largest lifetime celebration, these elegant and sophisticated places are also the ideal venue to enjoy the refined and creative cuisine of world renowned Chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten.

BUSINESS MEETINGS

