Restaurants, Bars and Night Club

- ›La Coupole‹/Matsuhisa@Badrutt's Palace: in the 2014/15 winter season the Japanese star chef Nobuyuki Matsuhisa (›NOBU‹) opened his premier brand Matsuhisa in the former tennis hall, which was once Europe's first. The Martin Brudnizki Design Studio in London designed the unique interior of this 108 seat restaurant where original classic elements are skilfully combined with modern style. One such example is the original studded steel girders of the former tennis hall which now support a glass dome. This affords guests a view of the legendary hotel tower and also acts as both the landmark and namesake of ›La Coupole‹. The restaurant incorporates a cocktail and sushi bar as well as a private dining room. Japanese-Peruvian cuisine; only open in the winter season.
- ›Le Restaurant‹: The Grande Dame of Badrutt's Palace Hotel's restaurants. Guests enjoy glamorous nights in a unique setting for a classic dinner, candlelight dinner or a cultural event. This venue seats 300 people and features International and French cuisine. During the winter a harpist entertains guests for breakfast. A set dinner is served daily throughout the summer and winter season. Dress code: From 07.30 pm jacket required, tie desired.
- ›Le Relais‹: The ›Le Relais‹ restaurant offers French cuisine for lunch daily (in winter). The restaurant offers a cosy atmosphere with its colourful décor in the Belle Epoque style and large windows with stunning views over Lake St. Moritz. It can be divided into two dining areas as well as a separate area for small to medium sized private events. In summer the breakfast buffet is served here.
- ›Renaissance Bar – Davidoff Lounge‹: Cosiest bar in St. Moritz offering classic and innovative cocktails at any time of day.
- ›Le Grand Hall‹: The legendary lobby of the hotel with its stunning views, extravagant décor and fantastic architecture is known affectionately as the "living room of St. Moritz". Guests can enjoy the hotel's glamorous atmosphere over High Tea, champagne and caviar with live piano accompaniment.
- ›La Diala‹ (Rhaeto-Romanic for 'mountain fairy'): The latest of Badrutt's Palace Hotel's restaurants. Situated within ›Palace Wellness‹, the restaurant offers a light Mediterranean cuisine with a wide selection of salads and sandwiches. The family friendly restaurant with its terrace opens daily from 09.00 am to 08.00 pm.
- ›Chesa Veglia‹: One of the oldest farmhouses of St. Moritz (built in 1658). ›Chesa Veglia‹ is a hideaway for the rich and famous and its restaurants are among the favourites in St. Moritz. It features three restaurants and two bars: The ›Pizzeria Heuboden‹ for original Italian pizza and pasta, the ›Grill Chadafö‹ for elegant dining with classic French cuisine and the ›Patrizier Stuben‹ for Swiss and International specialities. The ›Polo Bar‹ and ›Carigiet Bar‹ are the perfect place for a get-together, as well as for pre and after dinner drinks.

- ›King's Club‹: The most famous nightclub in the Engadin valley with seating for over 200 guests, fully equipped with modern plasma screens. Stars and starlets gather here for the unique atmosphere, guest DJ's and theme nights. ›King's Club‹ knows no curfew, making it the most exciting place to be when all other lights have gone out. Open only during the winter season.
