

Saint James Paris

The only chateau-hotel in Paris, in its own private garden

Just off the boutiques and restaurants of Victor Hugo avenue, in the exclusive 16th district, the latest addition to Relais & Châteaux is hidden in a private garden at a few minutes walk from the Champs-Élysées, Trocadéro and Congress Centre. Part château, part family townhouse, it has just been redecorated by the designer Bambi Sloan who created a blend of grandeur and intimacy, of classicism and extravagance. Highly Parisian yet decidedly beyond fashion... Simply unique.
